The center means as many people live east, west, north and south of the point.

McCulloch County:
Geographic center of the state

Shaded counties:
Centers of population for the state in the past.

Locations of population centers for each decennial census.

Texas Business Review and other sources.